PRAYERS

FOR A BIRTHDAY

WATCH over my Godchild, _____

_____, O Lord, as his days increase; bless and guide him wherever he may be, keeping him unspotted from the world. Strengthen him when he stands; comfort him when discouraged or sorrowful; raise him up if he fall; and in his heart may thy peace which passeth understanding abide all the days of his life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR ANNIVERSARY OF BAPTISM

GRANT, O Lord, that as my Godchild, _____

_____, has been received into the congregation of Christ's flock and signed with the sign of the Cross, in token that hereafter he should not be ashamed to confess the faith of Christ crucified, so he may manfully fight under His banner against sin, the world, and the devil, and may continue Christ's faithful soldier and servant unto his life's end; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

FOR ONE ABOUT TO BE CONFIRMED

O GOD, who through the teaching of Thy Son Jesus Christ didst prepare the disciples for the coming of the Comforter; Make ready, I beseech thee, the heart and mind of thy servant, my Godchild, _____

_____, who at this time is seeking to be strengthened by the gift of the Holy Spirit through the laying on of hands, that drawing near with penitent and faithful heart, he may evermore be filled with the power of His divine indwelling; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SUGGESTIONS FOR GODPARENTS

You are a Sponsor for your godchild, and therefore responsible for him through the solemn promises you have made to God for him. Yours is a sacred relationship from which there should come much happiness and spiritual gain, both to you and to your godchild.

In carrying out your trust the following suggestions will prove helpful.

1. Form the habit of praying regularly for your godchild by name, and also when you make your Communion.

2. Cultivate your godchild's friendship. Multiply helpful contacts. Remember his birthdays and baptismal anniversaries with an appropriate letter or gift.

3. When your godchild is old enough see that he is enrolled in the Church school and that he is faithful in attendance.

4. Encourage him to attend the Church services. Go with him when possible.

5. See that he has a Bible and Prayer Book and that he uses them.

6. Remember your promises as a Sponsor to take heed "that this Child learn the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, and the Ten Commandments, and all other things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health" and "that this Child, so soon as sufficiently instructed, be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him."

7. Teach him to look forward eagerly to Confirmation, and by all means, be present with him at that service.

8. Go with your godchild to his First Communion and encourage him to receive his Communion regularly thereafter.

A Godparent's Prayer

O LORD Jesus Christ, who doth embrace children with the arms of Thy mercy, and dost make them living members of Thy Church; Give grace, I pray Thee, to my Godchild, _____, to stand fast in Thy faith, to obey Thy word, and to abide in Thy love; that, being made strong by Thy Holy Spirit, he may resist temptation, and may rejoice in the life that now is, and dwell with Thee in the life to come; through Thy merits, O merciful Saviour, who with the Father and the Holy Ghost livest and reignest one God, world without end. Amen.

Dear Kebo,

The Calvin Klein comforter will be just perfect in our bedroom. I loved the matching sheets I had received earlier and now the look is complete. Won't Pat be surprised when he comes home one day and the bedroom has a "new" look. We're looking forward to seeing you at the wedding.

Love,
Maybeth

Happy 1998

Dear family and friends,

What an exciting 1997 we have had. We started the year planning and building a home. I must say that despite all the craziness of such a project I enjoyed every minute of it, not so sure Pat feels the same. We finally were able to move in last March. We are still busy with landscaping and all the extra details of a new home. For those whom I have neglected to contact our new address is: 4850 Ohchi Ct., Holt, MI. 48842. Our phone number remains the same.

We are all busy working, going to school, playling sports and just plain playing. Alyson is a freshman at Indiana University currently interested in the Physical Therapy program. Even though she is REALLY enjoying her independence she is keeping a good grade point. Hunter is in 8th grade and finding out that staying on the honor roll, playing sports AND maintaining a busy social life is a lot of hard work. Nate is in 2nd grade and full of life. He is just discovering all that life can offer. He loves sports and wants to do every one at once. Pat and I continue to remain busy with our jobs. My teaching of students with Learning Disabilities is very rewarding, each day presents a new challenge . Pat is constantly seeking new avenues to challenge and expand his business in Rehabilitation specializing in Personal Injury Cases. We have much to be thankful for especially for family and friends.

We wish you all a peaceful and bountiful 1998!

Cheers,

Pat, Marybeth,Hunter, Nate, Alyson Long

Dear Aunt Lucy,

Well I finally got all the information. Wheeew! It wasn't easy because no one seemed to know all the facts. Amazing that people don't know their own parents birth date, etc.

This is a thorough as I could get from the info. that is available.

Hope you are well. Well just as busy as ever but happy. Probably wouldn't know what to do if I had free time.

Our house is moving quickly. Can't wait to show it off. Love to all!

Hi! family:

Marybeth's surprise party really turned out to be kind of a mini family reunion. Too bad Dave & Barb., & Lonnie and Don & kids couldn"t make it. And of course, Lori & Patty., my parents, and my sons& daughter in-law., Megan & baby, etc. etc.

We really had fun, and of course.. sorry Marybeth, but we started celebrating since Friday, when everybody arrived. (See pictures marked #1).

The # 2 are from Saturday at the bar, and Marybeths" & Pats' house.

The # 3 are from Sunday brunch, celebrating fathers day, and then back to Marybeths' & Pats" house. and the pool tournament with the kids & grouwnups. The cheerleaders pictures are still in my camera.

I've spent three whole days trying to use my dads' computer & scanner, making pictures, etc. So,.....I didn't have time to cut them. And some of you will get the pictures on special paper, some in Kodak's normal printing paper for pictures, but hope you like them.

Lets really try to get together next year, & if Lonnie can't go too far, we could all go to Missouri someplace nice & spend at least one weekend together.

Well, lets keep in touch, O.K.?

See ya,

Vivian

Hello one and all,
and Happy New Year!!! - Just a quick note to touch base and to fill you in on recent events in our lives - I also figured that this is a good opportunity to once again let you know how very much you all mean to us.

We survived Christmas and a treacherous snow storm while driving to Connecticut to join Al's family for some holiday fun, but weren't quite so fortunate over New Years.. Although we spent our New Year's Eve in the Emergency Room, we feel happy and blessed that we are all alive and well and able to greet each day of 2003.

To make a long story short, our car slid on ice at the top of a Vermont summit on Highway 91. We hit the embankment, flipped (or rolled)
2 1/2 - 3 1/2 times and some how ended upright. Thank goodness, we were all wearing our seatbelts. Miraculously, we were all able to walk away (actually we climbed out the car windows), basically unscathed - bumps, bruises, a few minor cuts - no fractures or broken bones - Al was the only one to receive stitches - 5 in the top of his head. As you can see by the photos I've sent, it's definitely a miracle that any of us survived. If this isn't proof that God and Guardian Angels exist, then I don't know what is.

Anyway, as I've mentioned, we are all fine and hope this finds you in good health as well. Know how much I love all of you - Laurel

NORWELL HIGH SCHOOL: CLASS OF 2014

Blake Lampton

May 5, 2013

I am writing to let you know about an exciting opportunity that I have been given and to ask for your support. First, let me give you an update on what I've been doing since graduating from Norwell High School.

I am currently a junior at DePauw University with a double major in Musical Arts (Voice) and Communication. Over the past three years, I have been working with Dr. Kerry Jennings to hone my skills as a classical singer/opera performer. I've made great progress toward making my dream of performing professionally a reality and am proud of the recognitions I've received along the way. These include placing first in the Men's Classical Division at NATS, being a finalist in the DePauw University Concertos Competition, as well as being selected to be a member of DePauwcappela and the DePauw Chamber Choir. I was chosen for lead roles in the production of Urinetown and the opera Die Fledermaus, and recently performed my junior recital to a full house.

I have accepted an invitation to attend La Musica Lirica, an acclaimed international opera festival for singers! I have been offered the lead role of Count Almaviva, in Mozart's famous opera, Le nozze di Figaro (The Marriage of Figaro). La Musica Lirica is an intensive five-week opera training program, in Novafeltria, Italy that will allow me to work with world class professionals. This program works with many graduate students and young artists who are ready to start a career in Opera. The program will allow me to immerse myself in the wonderful culture and expert musical training that I will receive in Italy this summer. It is an essential step for me to further my pursuit of a career in Opera. This is an opportunity that is rare and valuable for an undergraduate student and one that will open up opportunities for me at the graduate level.

La Musica Lirica is a once in a lifetime experience, but I need your help to get me there! The students who participate in this specialized program are expected to fundraise the cost of the program. The overall cost is approximately $7,600. I am asking for your financial support in this endeavor. La Musica Lirica is a 501(c)3 tax-exempt charitable educational institution, which makes all donations tax deductible. Any contribution would be sincerely appreciated.

To show my appreciation for those who are providing financial support to me, I will be performing a benefit concert on the evening of June 6, 2013 at 7:30 PM at First Presbyterian Church of Ossian, Indiana. I will be accompanied by the amazing pianist, Keith Teepen, who is currently on tour in Asia! We will be performing works from Don Giovanni by Mozart, Herodiade by Massenet, Schubert, Mark Blitzstein, Le Nozze Di Figaro by Mozart, and more!

Thank you in advance for your consideration, and for helping to make my dream a reality. I hope to see you on June 6.

Love ya—

Dear Aunt Lucy,

Thank you so much for the gift of money. It will definitely come in handy. I am so excited for this new journey to Ball State to pursue Elementary Education. I can't wait to see what the future holds. I love you and miss you. Hope you are doing well.

Much love ♥

Blake Lampton offered summer opera fest opportunity in Italy

By BARBARA BARBIERI

Norwell High School graduate Blake Lampton has been accepted to the internationally acclaimed opera festival La Musica Lirica to be held in Novafeltria, Italy this summer.

Lampton, now completing his junior year at DePauw University in Greencastle, will be working for five weeks with world class professionals who will be assisting performers who are ready to start careers in Opera. While at the festival he has been offered the lead role of Count Almaviva in Mozart's famous opera "The Marriage of Figaro."

For the past three years Lampton has been working with Dr. Kerry Jennings to hone his skills as a classical singer/opera performer. He placed first in the Men's Classical Division of NATS, was a finalist in the DePauw University Concertos Competition and was selected as a member of DePauwcappela and the DePauw Chamber Choir. He also is a member of Les Chantuer, a student run classical chamber group. In 2011 he was chosen for a lead role in the production of "Urinetown" and in 2013 for a lead role in the opera "Die Fledermaus." This April he presented his junior recital to a full house.

While at Norwell Lampton was active in student council, holding class office all four years, was recipient of the Rotary Youth Leadership award, and was a delegate to Hoosier Boys State.

Musically he was a 4-year member of the Norwell Show Choir Night Moves and was cast in several musicals. He won numerous solo vocal competitions and was second runner-up at the first Bluffton Street Fair Idol competition. In addition he was a student for 12 years at the Pizzazz School of Performing Arts in Bluffton.

Blake Lampton

Lampton explains that to be able to attend this exciting opportunity he is trying to raise $7,600. For those wishing to assist him La Musica Lirica is a 501(c)3 tax-exempt, charitable educational institution, which makes all donations tax deductible.

On Thursday, June 6, at 7:30 p.m. Lampton will be performing a benefit concert at the First Presbyterian Church in Ossian. He will be accompanied by the amazing pianist, Keith Teepen, who currently is on tour in Asia. The public is invited to attend this musical evening.

The program will include works from Don Giovanni by Mozart, Herodiade by Massenet, Schubert, Mark Blitztein, Le Nozze Di Figaro by Mozart and more.

Blake is a son of Michael and Debbie Lampton of Ossian.

Megan Marie Lampton (that sweet thing) and Michael Mann (that sneaky varmint -- just kidding, of course-he's very nice) made me the proud spoiler- to- be of a 7lb 8oz GOOD LOOKIN' fella named Dylan Michael Mann, today, 11/05/02 at 5:02 a.m. He was might timid, however, and had to be forcibly extricated by c-section when the inducement method , commenced with fits' n starts last Friday at 3:30 p.m. failed. (they foolishly refused to listen to me when I suggested using "here kid, want some candy?"). Mom, Dylan and Dad are tired, but doing well.....Grandpa's just tired.
Bye for now.

3/10/86

Dear Aunt Lucy, Uncle Buster, David & Barb, Lonnie Sue, Dan & Jason

Good God that's a long title! — Aunt Lucy gets top billing for her steadfast refusal to give up on me. I'm quite sure your latest letter arrived only yesterday — notwithstanding the 2/7/86 date. Well, at least it seemed that way!

"I'm sorry" gets a bit old when that's all you hear, but, well, I'm sorry. In a effort to rectify the same problem (of lack of communication) with parents and siblings, we all tried a chain letter — course we screwed it up. You see, Elena's brother Paul has a 9 month old and Marybeth has a 2 yr. old, ~~so~~ so I thought it would be a great idea to send off some little used toys of Megan to each of them. After 6 wks of sitting on them, I finally got two boxes put together, wrote my part of the chain letter, and asked Elena to put said letter in the box to Marybeth. She did; then she promptly sent the right box to the wrong family and vice versa. To my knowledge, things are still getting straightened out. So, I probably won't suggest that method for us. Hope you don't really mind "letters" every 4-5 years (or so).

Now, before I answer your specific questions, let me give you the low down on us. First, Uncle Buster, it has been 60-75° and ~~no~~ no snow the past 4 weeks — I'm sure you feel sorry for us this year. But for lack of time, I'd be very tan by now!

As to lack of time, I have finally figured out a method to work 68 hours per day, make very little money, and spend more than what little I earn, without really trying. Neat trick huh! - And you thought it was a well kept secret! Being an honest, hard working lawyer is not only a contradiction in terms, it's dumb. Well, not really - actually, I'm doing quite well on the books - but I sink every penny back into the business. So, I'm still quite poor, but in the future..... I'll be dead. Oh well

While I'm alive, however, I'm leasing a neat new office. Costs more per year than my house - maybe I'll live there instead. (That's rent per year vs. house in total) Still, one has to dream big to be big. (And, Elena can't afford to knock me off now.)

Not that she really wants to ('though I do sleep with my eyes open). Actually, she still thinks she's in love with me - best thing I ever did was run into her! (if you say "Dumb Broad", Uncle Buster, she will kill - with love, of course). In line with my "rules are made to be broken" tradition, she helps me in the office - (she helps me screw-up this, and that, and....) Nonetheless (don't you love the legal bull) we are still married - and I can't fire her (Lord Knows I've tried) - not sure I really want to (today).

My letter is starting to become nothing but (.) also a lot of cross-outs (is 2 a.m. a good excuse?)

So - now to some answers (Ha! Ha! - one more page!)

Elena's family (Her name was Elena Leticia Mendez)

Mom - Gloria Mendez

Dad - Emilio Mendez (Deceased)

Step-Dad - Nené Villalon (more to it, but I forget)

Sisters - Gloria (Gogi); Maria

Brothers - John; Paul

- Gogi is married to Jimmy & has 2 kids - Maria, Single
- Paul is married to Hilda & has ~~3~~ (1) kid - John, Single

Daughter - Yvonne Denise Fowler - born 9/27/65 } Dad Kent Fowler

Son - Steven ~~Kent~~ Kent Fowler - born 6/23/67 }

(whoops)

Me -

Daughter-Megan Marie Lampton - born 8/8/80

Mother, Father, brother, sisters - yes - born - yes (most) x-wives - Now cut it out!

Now, as to you - I now have birthdays for all, except Aunt Lucy (who's 26) and Uncle Buster (who's 98 - don't worry I'm 99 according to Elena)

When is your anniversary?

When will you visit? (WARNING - we have cats - not my fault) - ~~perhaps~~ a visit on neutral ground, like renting a houseboat on Lake Powell together or.....)

Ok - I'm done -

Love to All - Kim (NONA, MEGAN, STEVE, NIECE

Elizabeth and I are on our way (well sort of- effective 8:30 pm Denver time on 10/8) to Greece. Mike has our flight info. We arrive in London just past noon their time 10/9....don't have to be back at the airport till 8:00 pm to fly on to Athens, so plan to take the "tube" to see a bit of London. An attorney in our office (Ron) has a son (Colin) going to school there, and today he agreed to try to meet up with us and be our tour guide. He believes we can see all " the biggies" in the time we have....and perhaps have time for a pint and some vitals (but no nap)....I bought another larger memory chip for the camera so will click away "with abandon" both here and in Greece. Anywho, we go on to Athens at 10 pm and arrive there at 4:30 am.... I arranged for a driver (George) to meet us there and take us to our hotel..the Attalos.. which is described as very affordable, but highly recommended by travelers for its cleanliness and highly professional staff...we go on to the island of Mykonos for a week using a timeshare exchange I bought in Cabo San Lucas last May (there thanks to uncle Jack's donation of one of his extra time share weeks) . We will travel there by hydrofoil I believe, subject to our driver's (George- of course!) advice. We plan to sun of course, and explore, and probably will fly to another island called Santorini for a day (or two) mid week-it's called "the best/most beautiful, etc" place around.....could'nt get a time share exchange there, unfortunately...but ....oh well, we'll just "suffer thru". We return on the 20th. Megan has kindly agreed to do the airport merry go round for us. She's also looking forward to making up for lost time in Indiana at Thanksgiving!!(as am I).
Thank you aunt Lucy for the old picture of me and Grandma Rosey...I look about 4 or 5, and it's clearly not the farm, so must be the house I remember in town (Sidney right?). Thank you mom for those Great pictures of the grand kids with each of you , and Marybeth with the boys .... very good pictures!!!
Ok all for now....I'm staying up too late given the jet lag that's about to strike, but what the heck.
Love you all very much!!

Hello,
I have spent so much time in doctors offices and getting treatments that I have not had time to call so decided this was the best way to bring you up to date.

There were 2 nodes in left arm malignant so they took 14 more out and they were clear so this is treatment I will be on BUT FIRST this is treatment.

After surgery, platelet dropped to 9000 so I had 2 more days of IVIG this brought platelets up to 380000. Now the IVIG only last 2 weeks and I certainly was not going to lead the rest of my life sitting (for me all day) and talking to the nurses every two weeks. (Anyway if that stupid health bill passes, I will be on the "too old to get treatment" list)

Next I had "rituxin" IV (this one last only 3 1/2 hours for me). Thank heavens my body tolerated this treatment. This one is to get my platelets regulated and to stop destroying each other. I will have 3 more of these treatments (one per week).

Go in next week to get mold made of my "gorgeous" upper body so I can begin radiation after the rituxin treatments are over. After radiation is over I will take some kind of a pill daily for the next 5 years. (So that gives me 5 more years before I have to make funeral arrangements.). The doctors are still amazed that I am in fabulous shape except for this stumbling block. Thank heavens for my ballet training!

In the meantime, the drain is still in left arm and until I get only 30-40 cc of liquid out in a 24 hour period, it will stay there. Consequently, the radiation (and body mold) will not start until it is out and the incision heals. Hopefully, drain will come out on Monday.

It seems everything hinges on incision healing and platelets to stop acting up. Why couldn't I just have a normal inside.??!!!

Rituxin will take care of those platelets and the Benadryl they give me puts me to sleep so I get an extra 3 1/2 hour nap once a week. There is always a bright side!

Today, I go in for a body scan to make sure nothing has happened to my bones. I had a bone marrow test in 2008 and I was clear then so I know I will be clear now.

I just love my 3 doctors...Dr. Yahanda, surgeon; Dr. Nala, hematologist; and Dr. Mantravadi, radiologist. They all take time with me explaining everything so I can understand what's happening.

Yesterday was my first day alone, the phone seemed to ring every 5 minutes, the phone was always in another location...think I will attach it to my body.

I am now on Lifeline which will keep my children from worrying about me all day.

God blessed me with wonderful children.. Since Dec. 17 I have had one of them with me, taking beautiful care of me. So beautiful, that their gourmet meals have put 8 pounds on me. That only thing that looks better with the weight is my face (it did look a little peaked) .

I don't need to worry though, my Healthy Choice meals will get me back to my good weight.

Now you are up to date and I need to take my sponge bath to go for injection for bone scan. Another all day affair.

Thank you for you prayers and love, Beth

Dear Sis,

Tomorrow I will be having surgery for two malignant lumps in my breasts...one in each one (at least I will still be in balance). This all came up just before thanksgiving and I learned right after Thanksgiving that they were malignant. then the surgery was cancelled due toa very low platlet count. Since then, we have been trying to get the level up. After the last two days of sitting at Lutheran getting an IVIG, it worked abd it has been scheduled for tomorrow, Thursday.

I was waiting until I knew that I was really going to have this surgery. I didn't want you to worry.

It is to be there at Parkview on StateSt. It is scheduled for 11:00 although I have to be there at 7:30 for all the prelem.

Marybeth is here and bringing me up, Mike and Deb will be there. Now I don't want you to worry, I will be alright.

I guess they treat this as an outpatient surgery so I should get to come back home later tomorrow.

Remember, I love you little sis, just say a lot of prayers for it to be a quick zip it down, get them out and zip it up!

I just found out today Beth had surgery for cancer earlier ,not sure when. I got an e-mail from Mary Beth yesterday but did not open mail until this evening (Sat). Another one from Michael.She is home now and Mary Beth is there. Don't know which hospital she was in for the surgery or even that she had been in.

I am putting her on our prayer chain tonight...hope they don't mind.
Will send her a lamb on Monday.

Love to all, Mom

The kids said the surgeon is positive he got it all but she goes in to see him next week and he is setting up treatment.
I will let you know as soon as I hear anything.

We did watch the game with some friends. Kelsey did take some pictures and I am sending the disk to you. Please don't do anything with them till after Christmas. (hint hint) I don't remember Lisa taking any because she was so sick that day. Lisa did get something from Aunt Pauline but since she is not home yet, she has not opened it. Will send some pictures of graduation later on. I am slow in getting my package in the mail so it will not get there till later next week. Love, Lonnie

Thank You

Dear Aunt Lucy,

Thank you so much for coming to my graduation party. You helped to make it a great evening. Thank you also for your very thoughtful gift. It will be useful next year at Purdue. Thanks especially for always supporting me throughout my life. It has meant a lot to me.

Thanks again,

Thank you so much for the certificate. That was a very thoughtful thing for you to do!

We were playing with our computer and the photo disk and voila' - we printed 3 pictures at the same time. Now all I need to do is remember how I did it.

Took my 1st air Balloon ride last Sunday afternoon - it was so much fun. Got a pretty good video of it! Landing was a little rough but we survived!

Glad you had a super trip!

Hi Rem,

By now you should be settled in - Hope the weather gets a little warmer for all of us - Hope you like the condo -

Thought you would like a copy of my wonderful honor -

I flew home last ~~Wednesday~~ Monday, the award program was Wednesday, I flew back to Florida on Saturday -

It was a fabulous night - Michael video taped it so Bud & I will get to look at it together -

I had no idea I was nominated for the award until I got first a call from Michael and then on Jan. 25th the forwarded letter. I debated for a couple of days about going home for it. I'm glad I did - it was fun being the guest of honor!

Her professional dancing experience includes the Broadway production of the musical "Are You With It," and Warner Brothers film production of "My Wild Irish Rose."

Over the years she has arranged for the CAC ballet students to see professional productions in Fort Wayne and Indianapolis. She also has transported students for practice with professional troupes of dancers. She has presented liturgical dance in area churches and an annual production by the ballet students is offered free of charge to the area audience.

For several years she was the choreographer of dance numbers for the Tri Kappa's Red Stocking Follies as well as soloist dancer.

In addition Mrs. Lampton "has developed a remarkably fresh and intriguing pedagogy, training new instructors in her formula that engages students and holds their interest. Her school has a high retention rate of students, many continuing through pointe in their teen years."

Mrs. Lampton's volunteer work is not limited to the School of Ballet as she has also been devoted to every aspect of the Arts Council's education work—gallery, lectures, fund raising, excursions and writing news/views.

Members of the Arts Council plan to be on hand as Mrs. Lampton is presented her award as are several members of her family.

The Lamptons are parents of four children, Kenneth R. Lampton Jr., Mary Beth Long, Laurel Sutton and Michael Lampton. They also have 9 grandchildren.

Wells County's distinction in the arts, as manifested gloriously before crowds at the community theater's Oklahoma, additionally was given lofty area professional recognition at a major large area event for the arts in Fort Wayne Wednesday evening

As had been detailed in Tuesday's News-Banner, Beth Lampton of Bluffton was this year's recipient of the Esther Ritz Collyer Award for "Lifetime Achievement in Art Education."

Leaders in the arts and arts support from northeastern Indiana and beyond were present at the Fort Wayne Performing Arts Center Wednesday evening for the two big art education awards of 2002 -- an honor to Allen County music teacher Diane Barton for program development and then the prestigious Collyer lifetime award to Lampton.

Heralded, of course, was Lampton's quarter century action as the founder, director and instructor for the Creative Arts Center's School of Ballet in Bluffton.

Lampton and here husband, Ken, were in Florida when the recent word came of her selection for the big award.

She was able to make a special trip back for acceptance of the honor Wednesday night. With her were two of their four children. Present was Wells County son, Michael Lampton, who was on hand with his wife, Deb, and their children, Logan, Blake and Emily.

Also on hand was Beth and Ken Lampton's daughter, Mary Beth Long, who is a special education teacher in the Lansing, Mich., area. She drove from Michigan after teaching Wednesday and had to be back for teaching again today.

The other two Lampton children, Kenneth R. Lampton Jr. and Laurel Sutton, reside beyond the area and could not be present.

However, those attending included Nedra Hiday of Bluffton, president of the Creative Arts Council of Wells County, and Marilynn Fauth, now of Fort Wayne but for years the Creative Arts director here.

Hiday and Fauth had submitted nominating letters for Lampton, as had current CAC director Maureen Butler, plus ballet instructor here Pam Talarico, along with Julie Coverdale and Audrey Almdale giving parental views. Lifetime Achievement in Arts Education Award to Beth Lampton for Arts Council Work With Ballet

On Wednesday, Feb. 6, the Esther Ritz Collyer Award for "Lifetime Achievement in Art Education" will be presented to Beth Lampton of Bluffton at the Arts United Fund Drive Kickoff at the Fort Wayne Performing Arts Center, 303 East Main St. The event will get underway at 5 p.m.

Mrs. Lampton was nominated for the honor by members of the Wells County Creative Arts Center with letters of support from Pam Talarico, ballet instructor; Julie Coverdale, parent of two students; Audrey Almdale, parent of a student; CAC president Nedra Hiday; CAC executive director Maureen Butler; and parent of a former ballet student and former CAC director Marilynn Fauth, now of Fort Wayne.

In describing the contributions Mrs. Lampton has made to arts-in-education the nominators noted that she has been involved with the Creative Arts Council's School of Ballet for 25 years. They went on to say, "in a rural Indiana community she has been the visionary and driving force behind a long-standing studio which offers quality instruction in classical ballet dance. In the history of the school, more than 600 students have benefited from the poise and elegance of the discipline of learning ballet."

Beth Lampton

She has served as founder, instructor and director of the CAC's School of Ballet since 1977. Children may begin as early as age 3 1/2 in "Creative Expressions" classes and continue through high school or beyond, i.e. six adults are enrolled for 2001-2002.

Mrs. Lampton shares her philosophy that ballet develops physical coordination and appreciation of a beautiful classical art form. It instills discipline, concentration and a healthy self-esteem. The resulting confidence, grace and poise become lifelong attributes of CAC ballet students, a rich legacy to the Wells County Community.

Mrs. Lampton and her husband Ken were among the original founders of the Creative Arts Council in Wells County in 1975. She has been Director of Ballet for the CAC since 1988 and taught at the CAC beginning in 1978.

While growing up in Fort Wayne she was an instructor for the Nell Green Dance Studio and taught privately for 20 years. Mrs. Lampton holds a B.F.A. degree from Sullins College in Bristol, Virginia.

She has studied under Mia Slavenska, L.A.; George Balenchine, Agnes DeMille, Anton Dolin, Alexandra Danilova, Anthony Tudor, Madame Marie Swoboda and Vaesechlov Swoboda of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo School of Ballet, New York City, NY; Gladys Hite and Ruth Page of the Chicago Ballet. Tickets at Door for Weekend Oklahoma

Few Left for Sunday Matinee Final Show; Best Bet Is Friday Night

By JIM BARBIERI

Tickets will be available at the door Friday and Saturday nights for the final weekend of Oklahoma.

As it stands now, some also will be available at the door on Sunday for the 4 p.m., matinee and last showing of Oklahoma, but that can't be assured.

Safest would be to go Friday or Saturday night, especially Friday for the most good seats.

The cast and crew will be back in Thursday night for final preparations for the three-day weekend windup.

More than150 people in cast and crew are putting on the fabulous Rodgers & Hammerstein hit -- another triumph for volunteerism in the Wells Community Theater Group Inc.

The scene, of course, is the Life Community Church's Life Center, the former Allen Auditorium of the ex-Bluffton High School, 428 South Oak St.

Oklahoma is the first show in recent years that has not been presented for the cause of "saving the auditorium" because the auditorium now has been saved -- and the successes of the prior shows were a big factor in that achievement.

Incentives are still there, however, since funds raised by Oklahoma and future productions will enable paying the $15,000 annual rent for the Life Center use plus the Wells Community Theater's $42,000 share of improvements to the facility,

As reported, a number of these improvements already are in service and are enhancing Oklahoma.

Kim Durr again is the show director for Wells Community Theater. The Wells Community Orchestra is directed by Sue Coolman.

Joe Welches as Curly and Amy Cook as Laurey have the leads in Oklahoma but they are joined by other also outstanding stars galore.

Curtain times Friday and Saturday are 8 p.m.

Tickets at Door for Weekend Oklahoma

Few Left for Sunday Matinee Final Show; Best Bet Is Friday Night

By JIM BARBIERI

Tickets will be available at the door Friday and Saturday nights for the final weekend of Oklahoma.

As it stands now, some also will be available at the door on Sunday for the 4 p.m., matinee and last showing of Oklahoma, but that can't be assured.

Safest would be to go Friday or Saturday night, especially Friday for the most good seats.

The cast and crew will be back in Thursday night for final preparations for the three-day weekend windup.

More than150 people in cast and crew are putting on the fabulous Rodgers & Hammerstein hit -- another triumph for volunteerism in the Wells Community Theater Group Inc.

Former Poneto Woman Saves Life in Ohio

CEDARVILLE, OH—A native of rural Poneto, Rhonda Vore, has gained notoriety in her new place of residence, Cedarville, Ohio.

Vore was featured in the local newspaper there after she saved the life of a woman she found lying in the street not breathing. Vore was on her way to work at Greene Memorial Hospital in nearby Xenia when she spotted the woman a short distance from her home.

Vore is an emergency room nurse at the hospital and a volunteer paramedic with the Cedarville squad. She used her cellular telephone to call the Cedarville Township Volunteer Department and then started CPR on the woman.

In addition to working at Greene Memorial Hospital, Vore also works at Miami Valley Hospital. After graduating from Cedarville College, she chose to stay in the Cedarville area.

Vore is a 1994 graduate of Southern Wells High School and the daughter of Rolland and Brenda Vore of rural Poneto.

FAMILY CELEBRATION -- Members of the Lampton family and arts leadership are at this table Wednesday night for the lifetime achievement in arts education award to Beth Lampton of Bluffton at the Performing Arts Center in Fort Wayne. Starting at left and going clockwise are Mary Beth (Lampton) Long of the Lansing, Michigan area; Beth Lampton, Nedra Hiday (president of the Creative Art Council of Wells County and one of those who nominated Lampton), Mrs. Michael (Deb) Lampton, Michael Lampton and the Michael and Deb Lampton children, Emily, Blake and Logan, all of Wells County.

benefit from Lampton's school and influence.

In acceptance of the honor, Beth Lampton acknowledged with appreciation the accolades for her own professional ballet achievements as a dancer and in teaching ballet.

Realizing in this respect that she had been "blessed with a special talent," Lampton said she was especially grateful for "the opportunity to use that talent and to give it to many children."

Present in addition to Hiday, Fauth and the Lampton family delegation were Edward and Henrietta Goetz of Ossian, civic and arts-education program leaders in Wells County.

The program, highlighted by the two big awards in the Performing Arts Gallery on the second floor in the center, was a festive event -- the kickoff for the annual Arts United Fund Drive in the greater Fort Wayne area.

Geoff Gephart, Arts United president, presided and made the award presentations. Giving a brief message in behalf of the Arts United campaign was Nancy Sarosi, fund drive chair.

Former Fort Wayne mayor Paul Helmke was among the numerous luminaries in the crowd Wednesday evening.

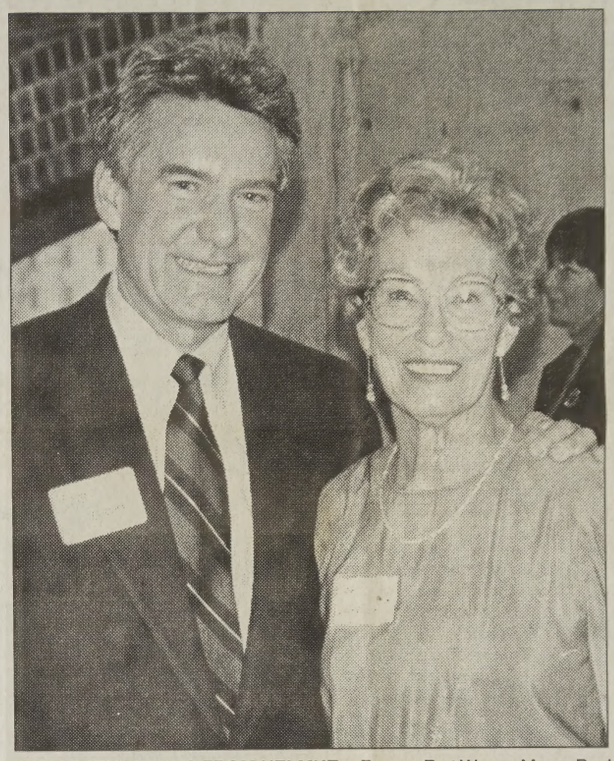
TV TOO -- Beth Lampton is interviewed by Channel 33-TV after receiving the lifetime arts award.

Lampton had grown up in Fort Wayne and was a dance instructor there before coming to Bluffton. As was detailed in the Tuesday announcement her own training had been with top artists of leading schools of ballet in New York City and Chicago, and that she performed in the Broadway production of the musical "Are You With It" plus the Warner Brothers film production of "My Wild Irish Rose."

In the lifetime award presentation, Gephart noted the Lampton role as one of the founders of the Creative Arts Council of Wells County in 1975 and her teaching there since 1978 -- serving as director of ballet starting back in 1977.

The nominating letters, as noted, included attestings of what Lampton's ballet teaching had done for betterment of individual lives and the quality of life in Wells County and beyond.

The high retention rate in the ballet school through her years plus her numerous other contributions to the arts also were cited and hailed in the prestigious award.



CONGRATULATIONS FROM HELMKE -- Former Fort Wayne Mayor Paul Helmke is among those congratulating Beth Lampton of Bluffton Wednesday at the festive event in the Fort Wayne Performing Arts Center where Lampton received the prestigious Lifetime Achievement in Arts Education Award.

ATTENDING LAMPTON HONORS -- Ed Goetz and his wife Henrietta (right) chat with Marilynn Fauth of Fort Wayne, former executive director for the Creative Arts Center in Bluffton, during the activities at which Beth Lampton received a lifetime arts education award Wednesday. Fauth had been among those who sent nominating letters for Lampton.

SHE'S APPRECIATIVE -- In accepting the premiere lifetime arts education award Wednesday, Beth Lampton of Bluffton tells her gratitude for the opportunity to teach young people in the ballet art.

HONORED FOR PROGRAM -- Allen County teacher Diane Barton is honored by Arts United of Greater Fort Wayne for program development in music education.

CLOCK PLAQUE -- The Beautiful clock plaque is inscribed with recognition to ballet educator-director Beth Lampton of Bluffton for her lifetime arts education service.

Lucy,

Music Man Jr.. opening night is Friday, June 15. Plan to come down here around 4:00. We will go to Richards for dinner and then on to see the program.
The tickets are $10.00. I need to find out about reserved seats, etc. so I will let you know more when I know more MaryBeth and Pat just left. they were here for a couple of days on their way back to Michigan. Their condo was rented out until June 1. We had a nice visit and as usual, the kids helped me with little jobs in the house which I couldn't do myself.

Now I need to get some things done for the summer ballet camps. It's nice to stay busy but I also need to learn how to relax. Guess that comes when I get "old"!

Talk to you later.

Hugs, Beth

Dear Nana & Papa,

I was overwhelmed to get your letter. It was so nice and thoughtful of you to send it. It is all to seldom that we actually take time to write the people that we so dearly love and even less often that we get to see them. Your letter totally lifted my spirits when I read it. I can't tell you what it means to have such loving grandparents. Thank you so much for the check that you sent. Money is very tight these days, and I really need the financial help. Thanks you again.

School is going well, but I am very busy. I have 2 courses in particular that require much study. They are my Financial Accounting class and my computer science class. They require 17-20 hours of study out of class every week, but so far I haven't fallen behind. I ~~to~~ also have a biology class, a psychology class, and a calculus (math) class that keep me very busy. Hopefully all will go well and I will be able to maintain my grades.

I am all settled into the frat house now. My room is very nice. I live with 2 other brothers, both from Ft. Wayne. They are very nice guys and close friends. We should have a fun semester.

Deborah is doing fine. We missed you at Christmas, but so appreciated the lovely gifts. She is doing well in her Surgical Tech. classes and will graduate in the spring. She will make a fine worker. Well, I had better get some sleep. It is very late. Thank you again for the letter & check. You are both so loving & supportive. Take care and write again if you get a chance. Bye for now.

Love Always,

Michael.

Merry Christmas!

Love,
Michael
